

Book Characters

Throughout the handbooks, the clubbers will read about a group of kids who are always ready for adventure! All of the kids are good friends and Awana clubbers at the same church.

Arthur enjoys science and checking out stuff on his dad's computer. He's also the kid with the 313½ freckles.

Erik is the little kid with the BIG words. He's not obnoxious about it, but sometimes his brilliance DOES make the other kids roll their eyes.

Leah's claim to fame is saying the alphabet backwards in three seconds flat.

Then there's Carlos. His priorities are skateboarding and teasing the girls.

Christy is totally into soccer. You can't find a soccer term she doesn't know.

Jalissa meets the T&T kids at Deep Creek Canyon in Book Four. She's not a Christian, but the kids invite her on a hike ...

And of course we can't forget Streamwood the dog named for the Awana headquarters location in Illinois.
